

Generator Electrical Design Engineer

Job description

Do the right thing

Be the difference

Love our customers

Never settle

Look forward

Role Profile

Job Title

Generator Electrical Design Engineer

Department

Engineering

Reporting to

Engineering Manager

Location

Scarborough

What you'll do

- Create electrical designs using CAD software of generator equipment for customer orders.
- Produce wiring diagrams, interconnection drawings and single line diagrams.
- Write specifications for the procurement of key materials, manufacturing and testing of the equipment.
- Create Bills of Materials suitable for the procurement of parts.
- Issue the required settings for configurable devices, e.g. protective devices, control modules etc.
- Work closely with other departments to enable any given project to be completed within agreed timescales and budgets.
- Produce other key documentation, e.g. wiring schedules, cable calculations, operating philosophy etc. to support any given customer order.
- Provide technical support throughout the manufacture and testing process.
- Offer support to the Sales and Applications team to assist in quoting for new enquires.
- Contribute to the achievement of department and business KPI objectives.
- Complete any reasonable task as directed by your line manager.

What's important to us

Person specification

Professional Engineer with minimum qualifications at HND or Degree level preferably in Electrical Engineering. Minimum levels of educational background will not apply were sufficient experience and training is evident.

Desired Experience

- Electrical design of Generator equipment
- AutoCAD and Zuken E3 CAD Software
- Working within an ERP system
- Deep Sea Electronics and ComAp Generator controllers
- Requirements for Electrical Installations BS 7671
- PLC programming desirable but not essential